GEORGIA AGRICULTURAL LABOR RELATIONS FORUM

About the Georgia Ag Labor Forum

The Georgia Ag Labor Forum is a premier, two-day educational event designed to equip agricultural employers with the knowledge, tools, and connections needed to navigate today's complex labor landscape. Held annually in Tifton, Georgia, the forum brings together growers, agribusiness leaders, regulators, and industry experts to discuss the most pressing issues affecting agricultural labor.

With expert-led sessions, panels, and networking opportunities, attendees get insights into evolving regulations, workforce programs, compliance requirements, and emerging trends affecting the industry. Topics range from H-2A and H-2B programs and wage and hour enforcement to OSHA regulations, labor housing, technology solutions, and strategies for maintaining a strong and sustainable workforce.
